

Protect your future

An exclusive offer for professional graduates

Disability insurance is particularly important for you. That's why Canada Life™ offers you a special program.

With the StartRight disability insurance grad program for professionals, you can protect your income as you build your career – and if you act now, you'll receive a special disability insurance offer that could potentially save you thousands of dollars over the course of your policy.

The offer

- Annual premium savings of up to 30 per cent
- Coverage without having to provide proof of finances
- One-time qualification that may include the option for up to $1,000,000 of term life and $100,000 of critical illness insurance
- Waived annual policy fee

Don't ever make a claim? With the return-of-premium option, you can receive money back.

This offer is available for those in select professions or programs of study.

For more information about these products and this special offer, speak with your advisor today.

In Quebec, advisor refers to a financial security advisor for individual insurance and segregated fund policies and to a group insurance and/or group annuity plans advisor for group products.

Helping people achieve more™